

All Cows Eat Grass

Words and Music
by Julie A. Lind

Cheerfully

First system of musical notation. The treble clef staff has a 4/4 time signature and contains three whole rests. The bass clef staff contains three measures of music: the first measure has three quarter notes (A, A, A) with the label 'First space A,'; the second measure has three quarter notes (C, C, C) with the label 'next space C,'; the third measure has three quarter notes (E, E, E) with the label 'third space E,'.

Second system of musical notation. The treble clef staff has three whole rests. The bass clef staff contains three measures: the first measure has three quarter notes (G, G, G) with the label 'top space G,'; the second measure has four quarter notes (A, C, E, G) with the label 'All Cows Eat Grass,'; the third measure has four quarter notes (A, C, E, G) with the label 'All Cows Eat Grass,'.

Third system of musical notation. The treble clef staff has two whole rests. The bass clef staff contains two measures: the first measure has five quarter notes (A, C, E, E, G) with the label 'Bass clef spa - ces spell'; the second measure has four quarter notes (A, A, A, A) with the label 'All Cows Eat Grass!'.